

Tour du Val de Bagnes – Trip Information

5 days, 4 nights

Price: CHF 2,000 per person (shared dormitory accommodation)

Group size: 4–8 participants

Overview

A five-day hut-to-hut journey through the wild heart of Valais. From the high meadows above Verbier to glacier valleys and airy mountain passes, this quiet circuit through the Val de Bagnes offers big scenery, authentic mountain huts and warm hospitality. Smart logistics make the most of each day, creating a perfect balance between adventure, nature and comfort, far from the crowds.

Dates

- 20–24 July 2026
- 3–7 August 2026
- Other dates on request

Accommodation

Cabane du Mont-Fort – classic alpine hut with panoramic views.

Hotel du Mauvoisin – Beautiful accommodation with excellent regional cuisine.

Cabane de Chanrion – recently renovated hut in a quiet, wild setting.

Cabane FXB Panossière – spectacular hut beside the Corbassière Glacier.

All accommodation is in shared dormitories. A sleeping bag liner is required.

Itinerary at a glance

Day 1 – Verbier to Cabane du Mont-Fort (approximately 6 hours)

Hike through alpine meadows and quiet hamlets to reach the Mont-Fort hut.

Day 2 – Mont-Fort to Mauvoisin (approximately 6.5 hours)

A big mountain day via the Mont-Pleureur nature reserve and Lac de Louvie, crossing a high pass before descending to Mauvoisin.

Day 3 – Mauvoisin to Cabane de Chanrion (approximately 3.5 hours)

A gentler day along glacial valleys, with time to relax at this beautifully renovated hut.

Day 4 – Chanrion to Cabane FXB Panossière (approximately 7 hours)

Cross the Tsessette plateau and Col des Otnes before descending to the glacier-side hut.

Day 5 – Panossière to Le Châble (approximately 6 hours, or 8 hours without lift)

Descent via Moay or Bruson. Optional lift available if needed.

Included

- Guiding by a certified International Mountain Leader
- Four nights accommodation (mountain huts and hotel, shared dormitories)
- Half board (breakfast and dinner) and packed lunches
- Le Châble to Verbier cable car on Day 1
- Optional Bruson lift on Day 5
- Local logistics and safety equipment

Not included

- Travel to and from Le Châble
- Drinks, snacks and personal expenses
- Extra lifts or transfers outside the programme
- Travel insurance
- Personal hiking equipment
- Optional room upgrades, if available

Fitness & experience

This trip is suitable for experienced hikers in good physical condition. You should feel comfortable walking 4 to 7 hours per day with a light multi-day pack. Terrain is non-technical but can be rocky, narrow and steep in places.

Why travel with Mountful Hikes?

- Small groups and personal attention
- Quiet, thoughtful guiding style
- Excellent knowledge of the Valais mountains
- A strong focus on safety, flow and enjoyment
- Languages spoken: English, French, Dutch and Spanish

Booking process

1. Send an email to famke@mountfulhikes.com
2. You will receive a registration form
3. After returning the form, you will receive an invoice
4. After payment, you will receive final confirmation and all practical details

Important information

- Minimum group size: 4 participants
- If the minimum is not reached two weeks before departure, the trip may be cancelled or rescheduled
- Difficulty: moderate to challenging mountain hiking
- A detailed packing list will be shared after booking